Activities

On 16th August 2021, M.G. College, Parseoni, successfully completed the event of tree plantation under the National Service Scheme at college Campus and nearby village Palora. The event was hosted under the guidance of respected principal Dr. Lokchadra Jadhao and NSS program officer Dr. Rakesh Kabhe. This initiative was taken to think differently as a society to make positive changes for the betterment of our environment. The NSS volunteers and the whole of students of college were divided into groups of four, with respect to 1st to 3th year students. The trees were planted along the college roadway and small plants were taken on group's responsibility to the village at a distance of 2 Km from college. Every group was assigned a faculty who in turn also took active participation in the event. The overall event was carried out peacefully with a smile on everyone's face as a satisfaction to happily completing the social cause. Nearly 100 trees were planted by all including Principal, teachers and students. All were happy and experienced a proud feeling after the tree plantation event was finished, because it really feels great to do positive for the nature.
